

Pilot A, Novel Biorefinery in Sweden

- Testing site: Hagby Gårdsfågel AB
- Primary waste to feed in: Slaughterhouse waste, chicken manure, saw dust
- Products: Propionate, valerate, butyrate, butanol, hydrogen, ammonium salts
- Testing partner: Mälardalen University, Dr. Eva Thorin as contact person
- Bioprocess expert: Adjunct Professor Elias Hakalehto, Finnoflag Oy
- Downstream processing: Engineer Tim Freidank and Professor Thorsten Ahrens, Ostfalia University of Applied Sciences, Germany

The Swedish Pilot A tests started in a bird farm

Pilot A has been transferred to Hagby bird farm outside Enköping in Sweden in July 2014 to be tested there until early October 2014.

Majority of Pilot A testing crew of Swedish tests outside Pilot A just before starting the first run.

